Native Sons, Daughters Hallowe'en Masquerade Dance Huge Success

All the reporters being out on assignments, it was necessary to send old man Editor himself, to cover the Hallowe'en Masquerade Dance held in the U.F.A. Hall last Friday, October 29th.

Gaily festooned in red and black, with many brilliant hued costumes floating around the floor, the old hall seemed like a page from a story book, in fact, the reporter had to return to H.Q. and borrow the glasses of the chief compositor, so that his old eyes might be able to stand the strain of so many colours.

Many were in costume, in fact, as two young men put it, one had no fun unless in costume, and after all, that is as it should be.

At 11:30, three of the spectators who had been having a good time up until then, were called upon to decide just who should get the prizes for the best dressed and the best comic costumer, Mrs. A. Montgomery and Messrs. Bannister and McLean were elected, apparently as they are still around, high, wide and handsome, their choice was accepted. Prizes for the best dressed went to Mrs. J. T. Davis and Ken McTavish; for the comics, Mrs. V. Patmore and Nyal Tweedie.

Calgary orchestra provided the music, and Messrs. Devins and Lennon were in charge of the floor arrangements, with the able backing of Secretary Eva McTavish who saw to it that everyone carried out their multifarious duties.

The spot dance prize was awarded to Miss F. Gough and her gentleman partner.

At the hour of 2:30, someone said, "we have no more money to put in the electric light meter," so the orchestra, taking the hint, played "Home Sweet Home," and the dance was over.

It was another successful evening to be recorded in the annals of N.S. & D.

C.G.I.T. Entertain.

Friday night, October 29th, was the date for a very jolly party for C.G.I.T. members and their friends, about 40 in all, and in an artistically decorated Armoury, the young people spent a happy time.

Under the capable chaperonage of Miss F. Gough, the party swung into full play with a Scavenger Hunt, the successful winning group being Arlene Amery, Jean Carmichael, Ruth Richardson, Ray Templeton and Earl Hopper.

Other games were indulged in during the evening, to say nothing of the very splendid supply of comestibles, which were quickly demolished.

United Church Ladies Aid Jiggs Supper and Concert Draws Crowd

Under the auspices of the Ladies Aid of the United Church, a successful Jiggs Supper and Concert was held Tuesday, October 26th, and from all accounts, those who attended report favourably.

The supper was served in the Masonic Hall and the concert was held in the church buildings.

The following artists appeared on the programme:

Mrs. Davies, Mr. George Wallace, Bucaneers Male Quartette, all of Calgary; the Misses Hunt, Amery, TreJaway and Laut, Masters Jack and George Fleming, Rev. S. Hunt, all of Crossfield.

Mesdames Hunt, Amery and Davis acted as accompanists.

Mr. W. Laut occupied the chair.

Every artist was well received and great comment is heard on every side of the pleasure they gave.

As Maggie and Jiggs themselves, Messrs. L. Lennon and N. Tweedie did their stuff in real McManus style.

Village Council.

The Village Fathers met Monday last for their usual monthly meeting.

N. A. Johnson was again appointed skating rink caretaker, and it was decided to erect a drop siding to the waiting room.

A snow fence will be erected on the north end of Mountain Street.

Until further notice, the night watchman will commence his rounds at eleven p.m.

The early-closing by-law comes into effect on November 15, and it is hoped that all merchants will co-operate to the end of making this by-law work harmoniously.

Local Resident Receives.

The following letter was received by a local resident whose name happened to appear on one of the bags of potatoes recently shipped to Irvine:

Dear Mr.

I received the bag of potatoes with your name and wish to thank you very much for the gift. My family consists of 4 persons and we can very well use the 4 bags we got.

Summer was very dry and we had no rain and no crop and no vegetables. Farmers did not thresh because there was nothing. The government buys all the cattle and farmers are allowed to keep 2 to 4 cows according to the size of the family and for these the government will supply the feed.

Many horses were sold. Old horses go for $5.00 a piece and are shipped to the fox farmers and are

Freedom With Tolerance

These much cherished and dearly bought attributes of democracy, freedom of thought and freedom of speech, will never be impeded as long as they are accompanied by sincere and earnest efforts to practice the responsibilities and reasonable restraint which the enjoyment of these privileges entails.

The duty of preserving these rights which the people of this country enjoy in such large measure devolves not only upon the individual but upon all who have the direction of the channels employed to give expression to human thought and utterance—the pulpit, the press, the school, the theatre, radio, the meeting place and even the home.

As long as these media of expression have full cognizance of their responsibility for the maintenance of free thought and free speech and exercise that responsibility in a proper spirit of tolerance and restraint, the privilege of free thought and free speech will remain a right to be enjoyed. If not, the danger arises that these rights will become a privilege only and the privilege of the few.

Undoubtedly Sir Edward Beatty had something of the kind in mind recently, in addressing convocation at McGill University, he appealed for freedom of thought and freedom of speech "but within the limits of accurate knowledge, sound logic, a sense of responsibility and the ordinary amenities of life in a civilized community."

While Sir Edward Beatty, at the time, was applying the general principles he was enunciating, to the universities as leaders of thought in the communities they serve, the admonition he was conveying has a much broader application, for while these institutions of learning, exert a strong influence on present and future trends of thought and utterance, so also have these other agencies to which reference has already been made.

In fact, it might perhaps be urged, with little fear of contradiction, that some of them and particularly the radio and the press, exert a much greater influence on the caliber of citizenship of the present day and the future and, hence, the type of government that will guide the destinies of the country, than do the universities.

The reason for such a statement is not far to seek, for the newspapers and the radio are presenting viewpoints day in and day out the year round to vast audiences of the public classes, which have direct contact of the universities is limited to youth for brief periods of three or four years, and within those periods for only a portion of the year, and their direct influence is further confined to a class of youth whose parents can afford the fees of a college education or who are sufficiently ambitious to find the wherewithal for the expense from their own efforts.

Hence, if the responsibility imposed on the universities to safeguard democratic rights, including free thought and free speech is great, how much greater is the responsibility of the radio and the press.

To date little or no ground complaint has been heard that radio has not lived up to its obligations in this respect and it is to be hoped and expected that the recently-organized Canadian Broadcasting Commission will keep this objective in mind, that is that while free expression of opinion broadcast in the form of speeches through the ether is highly desirable, so also is the use of restraint and the exercise of a spirit of toleration, whether the topic be political, religious, social or economic.

The radio, while it is including in its broadcasts the opinions of minorities, rests squarely on the shoulders of the press of the country, both daily and weekly, and as long as these organs of opinion fulfill this trust there is little likelihood of the people of this country acquiescing in attempts to muzzle the newspapers or dictate their policies.

It has often been said that a free press is the bulwark of democracy and so it is. It will continue to occupy the proud post of defender of the democratic faith as long as it continues to exercise moderation, tolerance and respect for the rights of others.

Almost without exception the weekly newspapers of Western Canada have a fine record in this respect and that is the reason they exert a profound influence in the communities which they serve. There is no reason to suppose that in the future they will not continue to carry the torch of democratic freedom and perpetuate the fine example they are giving to the press of countries which are not so fortunate as the Canadian west.

From time to time highly deserved tributes have been paid by those in authority and others to the independent but tolerant spirit reflected in the columns of the weekly newspapers of the western provinces. In doing their duty in assisting to uphold the fundamentals of democracy the weekly newspapers have set a high standard and are doing much to foster and maintain a high standard of citizenship and to fortify their own position in the hearts and minds of the people.

Would Take Long Time

Tourists who are anxious to cover a lot of territory in a few days will be interested in knowing that a motorist driving 45 miles an hour steadily for 10 hours a day would require 13 years, 10 months and 21 days to travel over all the improved roads of the United States. So it can't be done on one vacation, after all.

New Material For Shoes

Australia Is Going To Use Skin Of Beef Eels

A unique industry is now being started along the Great Barrier Reef, Queensland, Australia, the 200-mile-long barrier of this island country against the bluster of the Pacific Ocean. This is fishing for the reef eels. Abounding there, they will be sought solely for their hides, which will be used to help out the wardrobes of women. Extensive researches by the Australian government have proved that skins of reef eels can be made into a soft and extremely durable leather, and factories are being established to manufacture them into women's shoes.

HE WAS ALWAYS TIRED AND ILL

Three Complaints Gave Him a Miserable Time

Suffering from three complaints—disordered kidneys, sciatica, and hypertension—this man had an extremely difficult life.

“This is what he writes—

“Up to a month or so ago, I had suffered considerably from kidney disease, sciatica, hypertension and hypertension—this man had an extremely difficult life.

“I tried many remedies, but without effect until I got Dr. G. Kruschen Salts in a trial. In four weeks, Kruschen Salts has brought about a complete transformation. I have a new lease of life and once more feel that it is good to be alive.”

“The kidneys are the filters of the human machine, when they become sluggish, impurities find their way into the blood-stream, and the seed of half-a-dozen common ailments is born.”

The scientific combination of salts in Kruschen quickly coaxes the kidneys back to healthy, normal action, and your ailments are relieved and life becomes a joy again.

For Emergency Use

Every House In Britain To Have Six Months' Food Supply

Every house in Britain is to have its food dump, consisting of six months' “iron rations” for emergency use in the event of another war. Householders are to be given the option of purchasing specially prepared parcels of imperishable foodstuffs at prices ranging from £5 to £100, according to quantity.

It will be possible to add to the cheaper parcels until the war dump is sufficient to feed a family of five or more for a maximum of six months.

For those unable to afford cash, hire purchase terms will be arranged by the finance houses. It is estimated that within two years 5,000,000 families will have food reserved tucked away at home.

An average of £30, according to the expense of the Empire Movie News which is sponsoring the scheme, will be spent by each of the 5,000,000 families.

This will pour into English and Empire trade the colossal sum of £150,000,000—all “new” money which should result in a tremendous fillip for certain industries.

The Empire Movement, probably the most powerful patriotic body in the Empire, has very substantial backing in both Houses of Parliament, and has a country-wide organization capable of taking the food dump plan into every town and village.

The large standard picture was viewed in a dark room. The image was foggy and its associated sound indistinct compared with a 7-by-10-inch talking picture, also demonstrated.

Veteran motion picture engineers commented as they watched a pianist perform on the large screen, that “television is still in its infancy.” They saw the need for much simplification of the apparatus, which at the current state of development is too cumbersome for the parlor, looking more like an electric furnace than a radio receiving set.

For Peaceful Ventures

Practically Every War Instrument Could Be Put To Better Use

Apparently Sir Hubert Wilkins, during his recent search for the lost Russian flyers, was preoccupied with the same thoughts that the members of the search party have developed his scheme for an unbroken carrying train, conducted by submarine, over the roof of the world.

How practicable his scheme we would not presume to say, but we thought struck us in this regard. If Sir Hubert's plan ever materializes it will be the first time the submarine has ever been used extensively in any peaceful venture. The submarine is a sinister craft, at the present time, essentially an instrument of death. It may yet come to serve the needs of humanity, instead of threatening to wreck civilization.

There is a moral here, which humanity, deplorably, will not heed: that almost every ingredient of destruction has a civilized utility, and that the stupidity of man alone stands in the way of its peaceful employment.—Hamilton Spectator.

Condensed as dangerous the famous “King's Oak” in Tilford, England, has been reprieved. The great tree, said to be mentioned in Domesday Book, will be made safe by experts.

Is Automatically Set

Cheese Spray Entices Mice To Most Modern Trap

The modern mouse must be getting to be a pretty sharp fellow—at least, judging by the tricky gadgets being invented these days to catch them.

One of the latest is described by Roy C. Burns, managing director of the National International.

“It is irresistible to the first mouse and when he enters he automatically sets it for the second mouse,” explained Mr. Burns. “The first sees in front of him a modernized mouse hole, sprayed with cheese perfume, thin and elusive at the entrance and stronger toward the end of the hole. He enters a hallway and looks into a lighted mirror, and he thinks his reflection is another mouse. Losing all caution, he moves into a glassed-in compartment full of mirrors, but he discovers the second mouse is in another transparent chamber, and he stops to cogitate. Another mouse comes to him and sees a dozen mice—a whole convention—so he comes in, too. Another grate drops, and so it goes.”

ALICE STEVENS' RECIPES

TOUGH CUTS OF MEAT CAN BE MADE TENDER

Tough cuts of meat are avoided by most people because the meat itself is not satisfactory. It lacks flavor and is hard to chew. This is because the meat is not properly cooked.

As a matter of fact the tough cuts of meat have a finer flavor than tender cuts in many cases and there is a great difference in cost.

Extracting a great amount of characteristic flavor and there is a greater quantity of extractives in the tough cuts than in the tender cuts. The quality of connective tissue in the animal determines the toughness of the cuts. Age and exercise help to develop this. Veal is the tenderest meat because of the difference in the age of the animal.

The tender cuts such as Sirloin steak are found along the back, because this meat is the tenderest.

Cooking tough cuts to make them tender is simply a matter of softening this connective tissue. There are certain ways to do this.

Cook the meat slowly for a long time. Pot roasts require from 30 to 45 minutes to the pound, while a roast may require from 15 to 20 minutes to the pound.

Tough cuts are used for pot roasts and the additional time helps to soften the connective tissue. Cook the meat slowly. The steam can help with the cooking.

Grind the meat. This breaks up the connective tissue. Meat for hamming or roasting is put through a meat grinder.

Find the meat. This lessens the connective tissue. Sprinkle the meat with salt and don't wash it.

The flour absorbs some of the juices and softens it. For this reason tomatoes are often cooked with tough cuts of meat.

Try this recipe for apple rings. It makes an attractive garnish and is delicious.

APPLE RINGS

Wash and core apples but do not pare. Cut them into rings. Heat frying pan and add fat sufficient to coat a roast or drippings from a roast of beef or pork. Fry the apple rings in the fat until brown on both sides and sugar. Turn and brown on both sides. Attempt frying only one layer of meat at a time. Serve with roast pork or sausages.

Use it this way. Take 2 Phillips' tablets equal in “alkalizing” effect to 2 teaspoons of Dr. G. Kruschen's Alkalizer. Pour it into a glass of water. The tablet will dissolve almost immediately. The acid disappears, “over-crowding” from hyper-acidity begin to ease. “Acid headache,” “acid breath,” over-acid stomach are relieved at the first touch. An Absurd Contention

That Motor Cars Require Dazzling Lights On Highways

Once again the headlines announce that blinding headlights are responsible for another highway tragedy.

It is an old, old story.

But why should there be blinding headlights? Who is responsible for their existence? Has not science found a way to minimize the blinding glare of lights that destroy sight?

Truly, it is absurd to say it has not. Equally absurd is the contention that motor cars require such dazzling lights on highways.

There is, then, a first responsibility for their existence. It rests on manufacturers. But there is a second responsibility which rests upon drivers. No car of to-day is without, or should be without, the switch which dims lights below the blinding point. No driver should be so careless, so inconsiderate as to fail to use it as traffic demands.—Buffalo Courier Express.

Wisconsin Man Starts His Twenty-Seventh Winter in Bed

Arthur E. (Turkey) Gehrmeka, the hibernating barkeeper of Waterford, Wisconsin, has bedded down for the winter. Beginning his 27th winter's retreat, Gehrmeka locked himself in his bedroom on the second floor of his tavern and denied himself to visitors. Even tapping on a water pipe from the main floor failed to bring a response.

Gehrmeka's bartenders said he was out of circulation until spring. Meals will be sent up by dumbwaiter.

Gehrmeka began retiring for the winter when he was stricken with a stomach ailment many years ago. He found that by staying in bed he felt better, and ever since has passed the cold months in a horizontal position.

Passing Away Time

Rooting Poetry Is Fine Way States Irish Dramatist

Every school child should be made to learn at least 100 poems by heart as some protection against the tedium of life in later years, said Padraic Colum, Irish poet and dramatist. “No finer way of passing an hour of enforced idleness can be found than by reciting to one's self some of the great classics,” he said in an address. “The time used in pacing a railroad station platform while waiting for a train can be made to seem as nothing in this manner.”

Of devices for making short wave tuning more simple, more convenient, and more accurate, probably the best known is the Electrical "Band-Spread" System. By this method each of the four international short wave broadcast bands (16, 20 and 19 meters) is tuned separately by a specially designed "tuning fork" which is placed in an extremely small tuning condenser instead of the large tuning condenser gang used on the standard broadcast band.
